Coins at Wholesale Prices

During the past several months we have bought many collections and consequently have on hand a large number of foreign coins which we do not wish to add to our regular stock due to lack of time for attribution and listing. These pieces are not "junk" but fine collector's specimens which we have decided to offer in wholesale lots, suitable for stock or counter sale, at prices which will appeal to those who wish to buy coins of this character. The coins are from all parts of the world, in copper, nickel and silver. In general they are in very fine to new condition, but are not attributed, although where tickets are available, they will be sent along to aid the buyer in classification. The period covered is from the 17th to the 20th century, also some mediaeval pieces from the 12th century on. Each coin should retail for two or three times the price at which it is offered. We have made several classifications and offer these lots at the following prices:

Class 1—Coins at 10c each, includes many in silver. Average retail price 20c to 35c. 50 different pieces	$5.00
Class 2—Coins at 15c each, a little better grade than the preceding. Average retail price 25c to 50c. 30 different Pieces	4.50
Class 3—Coins at 25c each. Many scarce coins in this grade. Average retail price 50c to 75c. 20 different pieces	5.00
Class 4—Coins at 50c each. Really scarce coins in this grade, many of which would retail at $1.00 to $1.50 each. 10 different pieces.	5.00
Special Offer—Silver dollars, average fine condition. 10 pieces for	6.00
